Who reads Schools Week?

Schools Week is a primary source of news for thousands of professionals working across the schools and education sector, and is read by a highly influential and aspirational demographic. Every week, the newspaper is read by school head teachers, multi-academy trust executives, governors, teachers, schools business managers and other key figures from the sector.

As Schools Week is aimed at senior leaders and decision makers, it communicates with a highly influential and targeted audience. The title is distributed to individual subscribers and on a multiple subscription basis to entire organisations. Our readership, coupled with the newspaper's expert sector knowledge, makes Schools Week a highly effective platform from which to communicate your organisations message to the education sector.
